STUD CATTLE REGULATIONS

BRUCELLOSIS: All breeding cattle entered for the show must:—

- a) Originate from a certified or accredited brucellosis free herd, or;
- b) Originate from a herd which is not under quarantine for brucellosis and has had a complete clean herd test. The individuals must then be held in isolation for not less than 60 days after the herd test and tested for brucellosis with negative results. The individual animals must then remain in isolation until exhibited.
- c) No breeding cattle from herds in quarantine for brucellosis are eligible for showing.

PESTIVIRUS (BOVINE VIRAL DIARRHOEA VIRUS)

All pure bred Beef and Dairy cattle, and Led Steers and Heifers, may only be exhibited if tested for Pestivirus and certified as non PI (Persistently Infected) cattle. Certification of testing and proof of non PI status, in the form of a signed veterinary certificate or laboratory report listing each animal, their identification and result of testing, must be provided prior to judging

BOVINE JOHNE'S DISEASE (BJD)

WA is a BJD Free Zone under the National Johne's Disease Program. BJD is regulated under the Biosecurity and Agriculture Management Act 2007 and its subsidiary legislation. It is a requirement of the law that any person who suspects or has reason to suspect BJD in an animal must notify the Department of Agriculture and Food WA so that further investigation can be undertaken.

PARASITES

Any cattle suffering from any kind of internal and/or external parasite, including lice eggs (dead or alive), will not be allowed to remain on the Showground.

REGULATIONS

1. All livestock must be the property of the exhibitor at least one month before the date of the show. Exhibitors to give date of birth on entry form.
2. Exhibitors may be required to make a statutory declaration regarding the accuracy of their entry if the committee so desire.
3. If any exhibitor gives a wrong description of his or her exhibit with the intention of deceiving the Society, he or she shall be disqualified from exhibiting at any future show and shall forfeit all fees paid.
4. No exhibit can take more than one first prize in its or any other section, except special groups, champion classes.
5. Bulls over 12 months of age must have rings in their noses and be led.
6. The committee reserves the right of refusing or cancelling any entry without reason for so doing.
7. The decision of the committee on all points shall be final without recourse.
8. The judges may withhold prizes for such exhibits if they deem unworthy.
9. All Stud livestock exhibits must be on the ground for judging by 8.30 a.m.

10. No appeal against decisions of the judges shall be entertained unless made in writing 30 minutes after the award has been made on the day of the Show. Stewards to be made aware of the fact at the time. All appeals to be heard and decided on the day of the Show.
11. Exhibits must not be removed before 3.30pm.
12. Vehicles are not allowed on the Show Ground. (Except Disabled Passes).
13. All exhibits must be ready for judging as their respective classes are called, otherwise they will not be allowed to compete.
 - a) All entries are received subject to these Show Regulations and By-Laws, the special regulation in each section and to the uniform By-law made under the Royal Agricultural Society Act, 1926.
 - b) The Society may refuse any entry without giving any reason therefore.
 - c) The Committee may at any time disqualify from exhibiting either indefinitely or for such a period as they think fit, any exhibitor who has, in the opinion of the committee, been guilty of any breach of these regulations, or whose conduct, whether at or during any show of the Society has in the opinion of the Committee been such that he/she is unfit to exhibit at any show of the Society.
 - d) No person who has been disqualified from exhibiting at any show of the Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia, Incorporated, or any Show of the society affiliated therein, shall during the period of disqualification be allowed to act as agent, representative or servant of the exhibitor at any show of the society.
 - e) During the period of disqualification, no entry will be received from any person disqualified by the Royal Agricultural Society of Western Australia Incorporated) and should any entry be accidentally accepted, it shall be deemed to be invalid and the entry fee will be returned.
14. Any exhibit for which no class is provided, likely to benefit the Show, if entered as an extra in a competition section, may be recommended a prize or certificate if considered meritorious but no prize can be recommended by the judges if the list contains a class in which the same can compete.
15. In the event of two exhibitors gaining an equal number of points, the one with the most first exhibits will be awarded the trophy.
16. The Society will be under no liability for any loss or damage suffered by or attributed to, the negligence of the Society, or any of its servants or otherwise howsoever.
17. All unclaimed prize money after three months to revert to the Society.
18. WAS BIOSECURITY plan is available on request to secretary@waroonashow.com.au

Please Note: The ruling of all South West Affiliated Agricultural Societies provides that ALL exhibitors pay admission fees, and that there will be strictly no refunds.

TRADE CATTLE

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

1. Exhibits may be pasture and / or crop fed. Pasture and/or crop fed cattle are cattle grazed on grasslands, natural or improved, which may include lucerne or other green crops and includes any growing crop with matured head or ear. Cattle must not be stall fed other than while in transit from home pasture to abattoir. Exhibits may be supplementary fed in paddocks on cereal or clover hay or cereals until August 31.
Cattle are not to be grain assisted.
2. Exhibits must show no more than 4 tooth.
3. All cattle to be bona fide sale.
4. Cattle will be removed to the appropriate abattoir at the expense of the Society and held there until slaughter on the following kill day.
5. Insurance against loss or damage is the Owner's responsibility.
6. The carcasses are to remain the property of the buyer, but must be available for exhibition on the day of the carcass judging.
7. The Stewards are empowered to reject exhibits which in their opinion are not worthy exhibits of trade cattle.
8. In the event of the judge and/or judges deciding that the exhibits in any case are not worthy of a prize, no prizes will be awarded.
9. Entries must be the bona fide property of the exhibitor for at least 3 months prior to the date of closing of entries.
10. When judging the carcasses, bruising will not be taken into account.
11. The judge's decision will be final. In the event of any doubt regarding age of entry, the judges may call for the application of a dentition examination by a veterinary surgeon.
12. The Society reserves the right to:
 - a) Vary the arrangements in relation to selling, processing, etc, which may be necessary through unforeseen circumstances.
 - b) The steward reserves the right to have the final decision on the class placement of the entry.
 - c) Adjudicate upon any question for which provision has not been made in these conditions.
 - d) In the event of insufficient entries, the Society reserves the right to convert the class to the trade cattle section with necessary adjustment to the entry fees.
13. 5% Commission and entry fees will be deducted from the sale proceeds.
